Administrative Setting Changes

I _____ representing _____ have asked to have my user status changed to 'Administrator' of the domain _____.

As such, I am assuming liability for the site, as well as site maintenance. I release Queeny B Consulting and Design from these duties and the implied satisfaction guarantee, without prejudice.

Should the site need further maintenance, changes, or repair from Queeny B, I acknowledge that there will be charges involved.

If at anytime I remove or attempt to remove administrator rights from Queeny B (Taci Watterson-Balls), the site will be immediately shut down and I will be asked to transfer out my domain for security purposes and to protect Queeny B's other web/hosting clients.

If at any time I choose to sever the client/company relationship with Queeny B, I agree to notify the company in writing and allow a minimum of 48 hours for my domain to be transferred to my new hosting company.
